

Behind the acronym s.O.d is Berlin-based artist Jean Philipp Frank. He began his musical career as the singer and composer of the alternative band ABBY, with whom he released two albums on Island Records.

In the years that followed, he increasingly shifted his artistic focus to electronic music and became a founding member of the internationally successful act GHEIST.

2026 marks a new beginning for the singer, producer and multi-instrumentalist. He released his debut alongside his longtime friend and musical collaborator Johann Philipp Thimm on monkeytown records. Jean Philipp Frank is appearing for the first time under his own project name, s.O.d.
